Grow and practice in a fun and relaxed hands-on workshop.

More than ever, today's workforce needs the essential skills that come with being good communicators. But great speakers aren't born that way, they practice their way to extraordinary. The Speechcraft experience was created to help you hone the speaking skills you need to:

In six weekly sessions, online or in person, Speechcraft is a condensed version of what Toastmasters members experience in regularly scheduled club meetings. Speechcraft content is designed to raise the communication bar, often in all aspects of a participant's life.
